

Hamilton Rod & Gun Club Wounded Warrior Appreciation Day
Saturday October 17th rain date Sunday the 18th
23 Hamilton Road Sturbridge, MA 01566

In order to comply with the State and local corvid guidelines we will run this year event a little different than in the past. Our goal to have our guests enjoy the day while minimizing any risk to participants & Volunteers

Whereas the state guidelines is no more than 50 people for any outdoor event

We will have guest arrive in a staggered format 5 guest starting 1/2 hour apart

Guest will be required to attend their schedule venues as shown in the schedule provided

This will make it easier to maintain social distancing

A continental breakfast will be provided, which will include breakfast sandwiches, donuts, etc along with coffee & Juice

No raffle will be held this year

Lunch will include hamburgs, hotdogs, veggie burgers etc made to order, this will be held in the Pavilion not the clubhouse

All food will be handled by our volunteers (wearing facemasks & gloves) and handed to individuals wrapped with any requested condiments. Soft drinks will be provided

At the end of your groups session you are welcome to stay and enjoy the fish pond maintaining social distancing.

With the limited number of spaces available to warriors, guest may not attend this years event, We apologize in advance but we are doing so with safety in mind. Exceptions can be made with some discussion before hand and on a space available basis
