

The 20 ft access width is a minimum for use only with an exclusive fire department emergency access way. For roadways or public streets, these access widths must be increased. The end length of 60ft may remain the same, however. Variations of this hammerhead are shown.

